

FACTIVIST, AUTHOR, INT'L PUBLIC SPEAKER, EMMY AWARD-WINNING CREATIVE

RYAN BOMBERGER

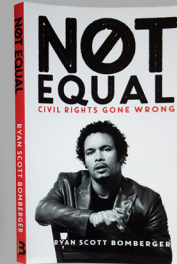

He has been officially denounced by the ACLU, Planned Parenthood, mainstream media, and sued by the NAACP (but won the free speech lawsuit). He must be doing something right! Ryan is an Emmy Award-winning creative professional, international public speaker, weekly columnist, acclaimed factivist and author of the brand-new book and documentary, Should Have Been Aborted. He's the cofounder, along with his amazing wife Bethany, of Radiance Foundation – a Virginia-based, 501c3, life-affirming, educational and faith-based non-profit. Ryan loves creating content that is fearless, factual and freeing. He's unafraid to talk about the tough stuff: abortion, adoption, fatherlessness, racism, gender confusion, free speech and the War on Common Sense. Each year, Ryan delivers 60+ bold, in-person multimedia talks. He's keynoted at Harvard, Princeton, Penn State, Columbia Law School, and a hundred more colleges and universities. He has delivered standing ovation messages at churches and conferences nationwide, led historic rallies at the Supreme Court and Capitol Hill briefings and helps to raise millions for pregnancy centers and maternity homes. He was named one of the “Fifty Greatest ProLife Leaders in the Last 50 Years” in 2023. Dr. Alveda King, niece of MLK, calls Ryan a “creative genius.”

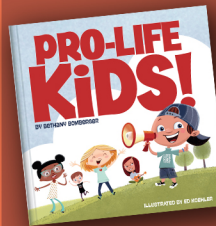

The Backstory

Ryan's work and personal story have received massive media coverage from NY Times, Fox News, ABC News, Washington Times, MSNBC, Washington Post, Christian Post, Daily Wire, Breitbart, NPR, LA Times and many more. He has a rather unique perspective on the innate nature of God-given purpose. Ryan was conceived in rape but adopted in love. He was the first of ten adopted in a diverse family of fifteen! Today, he and Bethany are the homeschooling parents of four awesome kiddos [both biological and adopted]. As someone of mixed lineage, Ryan is passionate about this simple truth: color isn't what binds us...love is. It's why he's launched the AdoptedAndLoved.com initiative to help fund Christian families who are seeking to provide a forever home to vulnerable children, no matter the beautiful hue of skin.

The Books

Ryan is the author of the powerful book, Not Equal: Civil Rights Gone Wrong, and the ground-breaking illustrated children's books, He is He and She is She.

Ryan and Bethany Bomberger have also created the culture-shifting PRO-LIFE KIDS! initiative. Children are naturally pro-life, and the project's books, videos and curriculum reinforce that reality. The Radiance Foundation has partnered with American Heritage Girls and created an incredible PRO-LIFE KIDS! patch program. Learn more at PROLIFEKIDS.COM
